AMUSEMENTS. NATIONAL THEATER-Dan Rice-The success of Dan Rice at the National is admitted on all hands, and those who can be induced by the a tractions which he advertises to give him a call, invariably come away satis-fied. The exhibitions given by his wonder-fully educated horses and mules are worthy of being witnessed not only by amusementgoers but by every lover of natural history. WOOD'S THRATHE-Miss Maggie Mitchell, It is a fixed fact that Miss Maggre Mitchell is a favorite in Cincinnati. To-night she will appear sgain in her great character of "Fan-chon, the Cricket." PIKE'S OPERA HOUSE-Prof. Anderson. Professor Anderson will receive his benefit to night at Pike's Opera house, at which time he will exert himself to surpass all his previous exhibitions. It will be the last op-portunity but one for our citizens to witness is mysterious and magical performances revious to his departure for Louisville to offill his next engagement.

SMITH & NIXON'S HALL-Mrs. Matt Peel's Minstrels.—This superior company of Min-s rels appear at Smith & Nixon's Hall, on Monday evening next. The names of Hunt-ley, Bidoux and others are sufficient to insure an excellent evening's entertainment. The remainder of the company are all equally good in their respective parts, and we be speak for them a crowded house.

SERTCH CLUB.-This association will hold another reunion to-morrow night, at the gallery of Hoag & Quick, No. 100 West Fourth-street. The subject for illustration is Longfellow's "Evangeline."

THE COUNTERFEIT CASE .- The second jury in the United States District Court, in the Cook counterfeit dime case, was out all night, as was the first jury. Not being able to agree, it was discharged. The counsel for the prisoner demanded a third trial. The Disthe prisoner demanded a third trial. The Dis-trict Attorney agreed to have the prisoner released from jail on his own recognizance for a small sum, to await trial at the Decem-ber term, if the District Attorney then deems t proper to submit the case again to a third

INTERESTING TO THE REBELS .- Mr. J. Cornell, of Newark, has invented a double explosive shell, which was tried a few days since near Columbus, in one of Miles Green-wood's rifled cannons. The experiment fully demonstrated the accuracy of fire and explosive qualities of the shell. From the results gained, it is the impression of artiferists that this will prove the most destructive of modern projectiles. A patent for this shell is now pending.

SAD ACCIDENT ON THE LITTLE MIAMI RAIL-ROAD.— Yesterday afternoon, as the three o'clock train had started from the Little Miami Depot, a boy fourteen years of age, named James McLaughlin, who has been a named James McLanghib, who has been a news-boy at Camp Dennison, attempted to jump between the engine and the first car, to talk a free ride, as the boys frequently do, was thrown off and his body completely crushed by the train. He was the son of a widow, who resides on Front-street near Received and depended upon himself and Broadway, and depended upon himself and a brother, a year or two older, who was also a news-boy, for her support. Coroner Em-mert held an inquest in the afternoon, and returned a verdict in accordance with the REV. W. A. P. MABTIN'S SECOND LECTURE ON CHINA.—We listened with great interest to Rev. Dr. Martin's lecture on China, de-livered in Smith & Nixon's Hall last night. The audience, however, was by no means commensurate with the ability of the speaker-probably to be attributed to the fact that other themes are at present upper-most in the public mind.

The progress of the American Embassy up The progress of the American Embassy up the Peiho; its strival at the City of Pekin; the description of the incidents by the way; the appearance of the city; the reception of the Embassy; the Mandarins; the mode by which they attain to their positions; the Chinese women; their social position, &c., were all described with anecdote and illustration, in a manner not only exceedingly inter-esting but instructive to every individual-present. Probably every person of the select sudience present left with the determination to attend the concluding lectures of the series, when we anticipate a large audience.

Mass Mooting at the Catholic Institute

Last Night. In accordance with the call of the Military Committee, published yesterday, a meeting was held last night in Union Hall, of the Catholic Institute, for the purpose of expressing the sentiments of the people upon the recent successes achieved by the Federal cause in South Carolina, Kentucky and else General McMakin, Chairman of the Committee, called the meeting to order, and in-troduced General Dobmeyer, who briefly stated the object of the call.

Rev. Granville Moody followed in an earnest and patriotic address, which was received throughout with shouts of applause. He complimented each of the prominent leaders in our great National Army, beginning with McClellan, the distinguished Commander-in-Chief, and closing with Fremont, the "Path-finder of the West," the favorite of the peo-ple—the cynosure of freedom. Of our own department he said:

"Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky are again side by side, and shoulder to shoulder, with steel in their hands and death in their eyes, as they press on the traitorous foe, on the 'dark and bloody ground,' where our modern Ne'son has given the Trafalgar shout, 'The depublic expects every man to do his duty o-day; [cheers] while our own gallant Colonel Harris plays a conspicuous part in the accomplishment of the victory." [Great applause.]

Colonel Guthrie, of the First Kentucky Regiment, was introduced, and spoke for a few moments upon the progress of the cause in the field of his own labors.

General S. F. Carey followed in a lengthy address, characterized by all the wit and eloquence for which the gentleman is so justly ated. The audience was convulsed laughter at the pertinent anecdotes which he related, and greeted him from time to time with outbursts of applause. Judge Carter and Captain Whitcomb con-

Lieutenant Allen volunteersd an appropriate song, and Menter's Band sullvened the meeting with some of its inimitable strains.

The meeting adjourned at a late hour full of enthusiasm. The feeling of the audience was unmistakably manifested in favor of an immediate suppression of the rebellion by all possible means, even though the peculiar and cherished system of the South should suffer partial or entire overthrow.

INKLINGS.

The weather to day is rather autumnal-raw, cloudy and slightly chilly.

Colonel Mulligan, the hero of Lexington will be in this city and address a mass meet-ing in Union Hall, Catholic Institute, on In-auguration day, Friday, the 22d inst. The boarding house on the corner of Fifth and Broadway was entered night before lest and robbed of a watch-chain and cash amounting in all to $110. THE man who took a bold stand is sorry he did not carry off a table. The work of grading and paving East Front-street is now about complete. Carts, wegons, omnibuses and vehicles pass over the road daily. The work has cost the city a vast amount of money, and we are glad to see it finished. "The "local" of the Enquirer in this mornand a local of the Engineer in this morning's issue was amused at a conversation among "a lot of jolly good fellows," in a "retired spot across the Rhine," about the weather. If any one can tell us where the amusing part comes in, we'll laugh.

P. S.—There were no "Zoo Zoos" in the First Ohio Regiment, three-months men. The Commercial this morning feels auxious about some of the up-river pickets not mak-ing their appearance at the wharf. The "enterprise" manifested in this particular in-stance is truly astonishing. There are no obstructions to navigation on either side of the river between this port and Pittsburg.

FORTY-PIRST Onto REGIMENT -This com mand, which came down from Cleveland to Camp Dennison about a week ago, received marching orders last evening, and arrived in our city early this morning en route for Gallipolis. The regiment numbers nine hundred men, well armed and drilled, and for the sake of humanity, we hope the sneaking and cowardly rebels, who have made their appearance on the banks of the Ohio, will be made to feel the effects produced by an ounce ball passing through their poltroom bodies from the guus in possession of the Forty-rom the gues in possession of the Friest. The following are the officers:

Colonel—W. B. Hazen.
Lieutensnt-Colonel—J. J. Wizeman.

The men embarked on the steamer Telegraph No. 3, and are now on their way up the river.

The steamer Freestone arrived at the whar early this morning direct from Cannelton. The officers report a fight is daily expected It will not take place, however, until Rose-crans' plans are matured. Skirmishing occurs almost daily, but results in nothing of a serious character. Nineteen "bush-whackers" were brought down on the Freswhackers" were brought down on the Frestone. Their names are as follows: Jos. Shoer, J. Harrison, Robert Dalton, J. A. Templeton, J. U. Wilkinson, E. T. Ellis, M. Yourney, J. L. Bledsor, G. P. Brain, John Gans, B. McCoy, A. I. Ashland, Jas. Parish, C. Keating, Wm. Pierce, Peter Bledsor, A. Chapman, A. Bell and A. Reynolds. They are in charge of Captain Turney, and are at present confined in the City Barracks. They were taken on board at Winfield, and are like the generality of prisoners brought down, devoid of comfortable clothing. They appear as if they were sons of the "Wandering Jew," with their faces covered with hair and their wor-begone expression of face. Verily, verily, Virginia is a great country!

the Ges Company to repair and put the same in good condition.

Also, a communication from the same, notifying the Board that certain streets in the Eastern District needed cleaning. On motion the Clerk was directed to notify the contractor of the Eastern District to clean the streets mentioned forthwith. The bids for repairing Hunt-street were taken from the table, and on motion the con-tract was awarded to Wm. Butler. The Board then adjourned.

PERSONAL .- W. W. Pike, Esq., the editor of the Paris (Ky.) Flag, dropped into our sanctum yesterday, looking as comfortable as could be expected. Mr. Pike is one of the best writers and as genial a gentleman as the old Common wealth affords. We are glad to learn that he is doing well.

Murder of Margaret Fox-Trial of John

The trial of John McAvoy, the brother, and Daniel McAvoy, the father of Margaret Fox, for her murder, commenced in the Police Court yesterday afternoon, and will be concluded to day. The testimony thus far has developed the fact that the accused had treatment convenienced of their courtes. has developed the fact that the accused had frequently complained of their relative as disgracing the family; had expressed a wish that she might die, and had even threatened her life. The position of the body of the deceased when found, the pools of blood in the vicinity, the marks of blood upon a grapevine stake which was found lying close by, all indicated that the deed had been complituded by amitted by some person while she was

It was proved also that she had been in-It was proved also that she had been intoxicated the afternoon of the day previous, and three or four bottles, empty and smelling of whicky, were lying near the body.

The defense will be concluded this afternoon, when Judge Pruden, counsel for the defendants will attempt to prove that the defendants, will attempt to prove that the accused were in the house throughout the night in which the deed must have been committed. On the whole, from present ap-pearances, the McAvoys can hardly be con-victed, and the crime is still involved in SUPERIOR COURT. No Standing Account you Secessionists.

Davis vs. Deboit. In referring to this case
Judge Storer remarked that W. A. Jenkins appeared in the case as a cross-petitioner, and it being stated that this individual was a brother of the Colonel Jonkins who had made himself so conspicuous in the rebel movement at Guyandotte, the Court desired to know how far the principles of W. A. J. sympathized with his brother.

The attorney in the case said that whatever his principles were, his wife was a loyal

It was stated by another lawyer that this erson was a Secessionist right up and down.
Judge Storer said he would not entertain urisdiction in favor of men who were raising the flag of rebellion in the country. Such parties must wait until the war was over.

The case was then passed.

Hoe & Co. vs. H. Reed & Co. Judge Storer decided this question—the controversy being between Hoe (who sold a power press to the defendant) and Ingham & Swift, of Chillicothe, who held a mortgage on the same press. It appeared that the press was purchased at $5,000—half cash—with an agreement that a mortgage should with an agreement that a mortgage should be given to secure the balance. The mort-gage of Hoe was not recorded, but it appear-ing that Ingham & Swift were notified of the xistence of the contract with him, the Court held that the equity of the case was in favor Hoe & Co, and rendered judgment in their favor.

RELIEF FOR THE POOR .- The whole time of the City Council was occupied last night in discussing the report of the committee which was appointed a few months ago to make provisions for the relief of the poor of Covington. The report, which is lengthy, was made by President Wm. Ernst. It is the opinion of the committee that the plan suggested and referred to them, of sending agents through the country to solicit con-tributions, is inexpedient. The reasons as-signed therefor are numerous and very plausible. In reference to the plan of grant-ing relief, by orders on the City Treasury, the committee state that in their opinion it should be discontinued at once. should be discontinued at once.

The committee recommend two methods of providing for the poor. The first was by placing a certain and reliable fund in the hands of the Council for the purpose—said fund to be raised by a special property tax. It was suggested by the committee that the charter of the city be so altered as to authorize this tax. The second method recommended was that a suitable building be procured, in which to place the destitute poor, where they could be employed at such labor as they were able to perform. The whole report, with the exception of that portion in reference to a special vax, was adopted, and steps will be immediately taken to carry the recommendations into effect. Council meets again to-night for the transaction of regular business.

NEWPORT NEWS.

SUPERSEDED .- John Nelson, who has been carrying the mail between Newport and Al exandria for several years past, has been superseded by the Department at Washington, and the contract awarded to James Jenner, of Alexandria. The former contractor is charged with disloyalty to the Government, hence his removal. The running of omni-buses between this city and Alexandria will be discontinued on Monday next. The new nail contractor will carry the mail in a wagon for the present.

THE WEBSTER REGIMENT,-We learn that an arrangement has been effected by which this regiment will consolidate with a German regiment at Louisville, under Major Heilnan. The new organization numbers seven full companies and three skeleton companies. The most active means will be adopted at once to complete the regiment, and as but few men are required, we presume there will be no difficulty about the matter. ARREST OF AN INCENDIARY,-A soldier at Camp Webster, named John O. Hay, was arrested yesterday, and will have an examination to day before Esquire Payne, on the charge of setting fire to the guard-house at the camp, a few days since.

The relief granted to the poor during the last two weeks was reported to be $24. The Committee on Improvement were di-rected to have the several board footways or bridges in the Fourth Ward repaired. CARTRIDGES FOUND .- Deputy Surveyor Edward Mariana found a lot of cartridges se-creted in a sand-bost, on the Cincinnati side f the river, last evening. It is thought that these cartridges are only arcmount of a large lot which has doubtless been smuggled off in I come direction

COFFEE THAT IS BEATEN IN A MORTAR .-It is not generally known, says the Buffalo Express, that coffee which has been beaten, is letter than that which has been ground; such is the case, and in his brief article on the subject, Savaria gives what he considers the reasons for the difference. As he remarks, a mere decection of green coffee is a most insippld drink, but carbonization developes the aroma, and an oil, which is the peculiarity of the coffee we admire. He agrees with other writers, that the Turks, excel in this. They employ no mills, but beat the berry with wooden pestels in mortars. When long used, these pestels become precious and bring great prices. He determined by actual experiment which of the two methods was the best. He burned carefully a pound of good Mocha and separated it into two equal portions. The one was passed through the mill, the other beaten after the Turkish fashion in a mortar. made coffee of each. Taking equal weights of each, and pouring on an equal quantity of water, he treated them both precisely alike. He tasted the coffee himself, and caused other competent judges to do so. The unanimous opinion was, that coffee

LUMBER AND WOOD AT WASHINGTON.—A vest amount of lumber is pouring in for the use of the Government, and many people argue from this fact that General McCleiian is putting the grand army of the Poto-mac into winter quarters. This is not true. Arrangements for the winter are making for perhaps fifty thousand troops—such an army as in any contingency must remain to guard the Capital. The Government his made a contract for eight thousand cords of wood per month; and it is thought that only a very large army can consume so much fuel, but the fact is, that the Government provides against contingencies, and if more wood is furnished than is wanted by the army it will be turned over to the people of Wash-

THE WORLD'S FAIR OF 1862 -It is certainly not the intention of the Government to allow the arts of peace to languish by reason of the the arts of peace to languish by reason of the present war. The circular to exhibitors, which has just been issued by the American Commissioners to the World's Fair of 1862, indicates that the United States will be well represented in the great international indus-trial gathering. The articles must be ready for shipment from New York by January I, 1862. American exhibitors must in every case transact their business through their own compossioners, as no notice will be taken of their application by the British authorities. This is to avoid confusion. The Government is to furnish a vessel to trans-port all articles to London and back free of cost to the exhibitors, but no goods will be admitted unless produced since 1850.

A "STRONG ARM" WANTED -The Union demonstrations on the North Carolina coast alarm the traitors of the old North State, and in their fear they betray themselves. The Raleigh Standard declares, with, we imagine, a great deal of truth, that "unless the movement is stopped at once by the strong arm of the Confederate States, more than half the counties of this State will be attached to the Republican Government before the Union Congress meets." And the same paper says: "It is very evident that the State authorities will never make a move in this direction, owing to the reason that they are in the same boat with the Unionists."

CHEAPENING DISPATCHES - The electric telegraph is to be cheapened and popularized in Great Britain. It is proposed to contract with business men, so that they may send or receive an unlimited number of messages, exclusively on their own business, at greatly reduced rates. Thus, merchants would advise their customers that they can send them messages without prepayment whenever any particular goods are wanted, and any general trade notice could be circulated in the same manner. The proposed rate is twenty shillings sterling, or four dollars and eighty cents for every twenty messages, without regard to length or distance. We learn from the New Orleans Delta of the 28th ult, that four persons in that city, thought to be disloyal to the Southern Conlederacy, were sent for six months to the work house. This appears to be a new punishment for disloyalty. What would our Secessionists here think if we should conclude to try it on them? If they consider it, as un doubtedly they do, a capital thing for New Orleans, how do they fancy it would suit atitude 38° 3' and longitude 11° 19' 2' A LITTLE MORE POWDER -The ship Conway, from London, arrived at Quebec on Monday, with 15,500 barrels of gunpowder and other military stores. The bark Ealing Grove arrived at the same port the previous day, with military stores. The steamer Jura also landed at Quebec a quantity of stores for the garrison.—Montreal Advertiser. The amount of money stolen from the Winsted Bank, at West Winsted, Connecticut, on Sunday, was $50,000. The building was probably entered by stairs on the out-side, communicating with a lawyer's office directly over the bank vault. The floor was taken up, and the vault, which was of heavy masonry, covered with a massive stone slab entered by splitting the stone and removing it. After the money was taken the pieces of alab were replaced and the flooring screwed down, leaving scarcely a trace upon the out-side of the work accomplished by the burglars.

(Special to the New York Tribune) Washington, November 14 - Jno. E. Udey, of North Carolina, a British antiect, was brought here on the Caur de Lion. He obtained a pass at Richmond from the British Consul, and reached Matthias Point from Fredericksburg. He represents the citizens of Richmond to be in a great fright at the Success of our navy at Beaufort.

He was sent here by Governor Reeder, of North Carolina, to obtain two sons by the first marriage of the late Judge Douglas, and carry them South, to prevent their property, valued at $500,000, from being confiscated. A report was received at head-quarters last right that the rebel forces in Northampton County, Va., had been reinforced, and were now five thousand strong, with ten pieces of artillery. General Dix, who was here in consultation with the President and General McClellan last night, discredits the statement, and sets the whole number in arms on the eastern shore at twenty-five hundred.

General Lockwood's force on the border is much larger and better.

Seven negroes belonging to the estate of the late John A. Washington were brought into Fort Lyon this morning, whence they were sent to Washington.

Latest dispatches concerning General Nel-son's victory, received at the War Department, represent the number of prisoners at two thousand and fifteen; the number of rebel dead found is four hundred. Two steamers from Annapolis and one from Fort Monroe have already sailed with reinforcements for General Sherman; others follow soon.

General Burnside's division, consisting of six regiments, are expected to depart imme-diately on the arrival of a portion of the vessels now constituting the fleet at Beau-

Cavairy, has been retired.

The Retiring Board has adjourned till Saturday, when it will dispose of the only remaining case and adjourn sine dis. General Meigs has intimated he desired an (Special to the New York World.) Generals Stone and Banks are in town. A grand council of war is to be held to day, which will be participated in by McClellan, the President and all Acting Major Generals. The question of an advance will be decided.

Our spies and scouts report great disturbance in the rebel ranks, and the rapid moving of troops. There is also great activity in [Special Dispatch to the Times.] There is evidently an intention on the part of the Government to follow up the ow so successfully struck on the South Carolina coast. General Harney has gone to Fortress Mon-roe. It is thought he will take command of the reinforcements, and participate in the campaign on the Southern coast. (Special to the New York Herald.) Mr. Dodge, Chief of Police of Baltimore, was here to day and reported to the War De-partment that information was brought to Baltimore this morning, by boat from Fort-ress Monroe, that General Sherman had seized two million dollars worth of cotton in the vicinity of Beaufort, S.C., and that num-ters of citizens there had professed loyalty to the Government and were soliciting arms with which to organize and protect themselves against the rabels. It is reported upon good authority that the rebels are about four thousand strong at Winchester, and three thousand strong at Rebel pickets keep a close watch on the river opposite Pooleville and that vicinity, fearing General Banks or Stone will cross.

Just above Pooleville the river is low sough for infantry to ford. SPRINGFIELD, Mo., November 11 .the departure of Generals Hunter's, Pope's and Sturgis' divisions of the army Saturday for Warraw, nothing of interest has trans-pired here. General Sigel's and Asboth's divisions have returned from their position south of here, which was merely a protect our withdrawal, and will march for St. Louis vic Rolla in a day or two. Springfield will be entirely evacuated, and a large number of Union men of the city and surrounding country have left and will continue to leave with the army, not being willing to risk their lives in the hands of the rebels.

Sterling Price began to move with his army, twenty-seven thousand men and twenty-five pieces of artillery, Saturday morning, toward Pineville, McDonald County, in the extreme south-western corner of the State.

Ben McCulloch broke up his camp Friday ight, and the next day was marching toward Berry ville, Carroll County, Arkansal.

A gentleman recently a prisoner in the rebel camp, says Price designs to go into winter quarters at Cross Hollow, Warhing-ton County, Arkansas; that all his rebels who wish to go home have already returned and that those now with him intend to figh outside of Missouri. NEW York, November 15 .- A large Hoglish steamer loaded with mustions of war for the robels was captured by a United States frigate and taken to Key West. It is no doubt the Finsal, which was known to be fitting out at Greenack with the intention of running the blockade Louisville, Kv., November 15.—General Busl has arrived. A letter to the Journal from Grab Orchard says that Zollicoffer retreated on Wednesday, blockading the road from Cumberland Ford to Cumberland Gap, by blasting immense rocks from the hills into the roads.

BALTIMORE, November 15 .- Old Point boat Charleston papers, of the 12th inst., state Charleston papers, of the 12th inst., state that General Lee is making extensive preparations to defend Beaufort, and the place is not occupied by General Sherman; that negroes are engaged in removing cotton and other property, and that two Yankee gunboats are aground near the village.
